

Thursday night's Zoom connection was beautiful chaos! 14 students joined in on the fun!

- Bad/corny jokes were told and heard by all (many by me)! Maddox was especially happy i didn't use my sound-effects this week
- Lots of great examples of crazy hair...Henry "Hendawg" A. even had a blue wig and Ella "Ella-Vader" C. showed a late charge forward with her crazy messed up hair for the competition. Freddie "Freddie Celtic" C. has very short hair so adorned a book or other items to add to the craziness. Matthew B, seems like the natural favorite, but always has hardworking challengers. Mikey "Spikey" G, got a haircut, but still entertained us with Baby Mikey as his background image! Anabel, had some high-speed head shaking to mess up her hair for the happy crowds. Yet oddly, again it was a unanimous tie by all competitors!
- "Guess that sound" was new and successful. Each student could make a sound with something in the room but not show us and the rest of us had to guess what it was. Very creative noises
- An awesome game of "invisiBALL" kept everyone involved...yet Logan got stuck having to throw it to me, but we all kept the "ball" moving the last few minutes, before the call shut down. Always fun but sad too was the last 5 second count down of "bye" "See ya, later" "Adios, everyone"

WE MADE THE NEWSPAPER! But HUGE news and thanks to the class (and parents) for supporting my efforts of "Thank You Corner" to show thanks and gratitude to many still working to keep our community going during this unusual time. Still plenty of time to add your efforts too! HOMETOWN HEROES: Belmont's 'thank you corner'
