

Hello again! I am hoping you are safe & healthy and you are able to join our 7:00pm BEDP meeting FRIDAY night. We had a great time last week, with about 20 students. remind your 3rd grade BEDP friends to join! An invitation will follow.

Agenda: jokes, show & tell, invisibALL, and possibly crazier hair contest

i want to thank ALL of those who have contributed to Thank You Corner. The gratitude and creativity is remarkable. There is still time to contribute. if you have any questions, feel free to ask.

TBT: I also wanted to share a few images of the bulbs many of the students helped plant in the school yard in the Fall. They have grown and blossomed, but sadly we aren't able to visit school to see them this year! they will bloom again next year but I wanted you to enjoy what I captured with my telephoto lens! please share this with your child if possible
